Thanks, except the top is still busted.
I'm a couple minutes away from ordering the new top for it.

On a related note, just talked to Justin at Artwalk and they'll be at the plaza from 6pm-10pm next Thursday.
We need to set-up the extension cords and powerstrip for them at 5pm.

Looks great!

By the way, we got power restored to the tree well outlet this morning.
Our main breaker was turned off and now we know where it really is.

Thanks.

Hey- once the new guy is up and running at 40 hrs/week, do you know how you'll split the remaining 40 hr/week amongst Robles and Crowe?
